Fairfield City Museum & Gallery (FCMG) is an award-winning cultural space in South-West Sydney. Combining a contemporary art gallery, a social history museum and an historic open-air 'Vintage Village', FCMG develops programs and exhibitions that strengthen the creative landscape of Fairfield City and connect with the local community.

This is a call out for expressions of interest (EOI) for a guest-curator (contract). We are looking for someone with a strong connection to western Sydney and an existing artistic network. Proven research and project management experience is essential.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Curate and deliver a temporary exhibition in FCMG's Stein Gallery, on display from 10 July - 23 Oct 2021.
- Meet regularly with FCMG in the months leading up to the exhibition
- Develop and adhere to a timeline and budget for the project

- Engage artists and select works
- Write a catalogue essay, obtain images and biographical information from each artist and liaise with FCMG staff on the production of the catalogue
- Write wall texts and labels
- Liaise with FCMG staff to develop all necessary material for promotion and for the delivery of accompanying public programs
- Work with FCMG staff on install/de-install
- Present a report on the conclusion of the exhibition

REQUIREMENTS:

- Public Liability insurance
- Professional Indemnity insurance

The successful applicant will receive a $5000 curatorial fee.

Please contact FCMG to discuss your proposal prior to submitting an EOI. Call Carmel Aiello or Alinde Bierhuizen on 02 9725 0190 or email fcmg@fairfieldcity.nsw.gov.au.

Deadline for submissions is Sunday 27 September 2020.

Email your submission to fcmg@fairfieldcity.nsw.gov.au. Please include:

- A one-page letter, proposal or pitch outlining the curatorial rationale and concepts you would like to explore in the exhibition.
- CV or bio (max. two pages)
- Contact details of two referees

First Nations people, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and people with a disability are encouraged to apply.
